

CHRISTINA WELLS – FULL BIO

updated 01/01/2024

Christina Wells is a singer, actress and motivational speaker from Houston, TX. After years of caring for others as a Registered Nurse, and single mother of her two incredible sons, Christina began to embark upon a journey of self-discovery that would lead her to national recognition. While in her 40's, she shifted focus toward her passion for singing and performance and found herself auditioning for America's Got Talent. She not only landed a spot in the competition but was a semifinalist earning praise from the judges while winning over the hearts of America.

In addition to her musical talent, she discovered that her message of self-love, confidence, and positivity would inspire millions. She encourages everyone to pursue their own dreams and learn to love themselves just as they are. News publications such as USA Today, Forbes, The Houston Chronicle, Billboard Magazine, Washington Post, NPR, and more have featured her as a performer with a message of positivity, love, and hope that also has a powerhouse voice that'll blow the roof off of any stage.

Since her time on America's Got Talent, Christina has appeared in professional productions such as Ursula in The Little Mermaid (Theatre Under the Stars TUTS), Sour Kangaroo in Seussical (TUTS), Sylvia in All Shook Up (TUTS), Charilee in Honky Tonk Angels Holiday Spectacular (Stages Repertory Theatre), Jewel in The Best Little Whorehouse in Texas (Art Park Players) and Motormouth Maybelle in Hairspray (Art Park Players). She just recently finished touring as Matron "Mama" Morton in the 25th Anniversary Broadway National tour of Chicago.

Christina has sung the National Anthem for the MLB, NFL, and NBA. She has also released two original singles, "Ready or Not" and "Somebody," available for streaming on Spotify, Apple Music, SoundCloud, and YouTube Music! Each song bears her message of confidence and self-love.

From her time inspiring others as a Semi-Finalist on America's Got Talent to her appearances at schools, women's conferences, and benefits across the nation, she has sought to uplift her audience with her own unique brand of motivational entertainment.
